

VRS is wonderful for me to use for personal, work and anything. ASL is still a pure and visual language to communicate through everyone who are hearing which I can communicate comfortably. Even if good quality video could make us a very normal communication. Plus, VRS is way much faster than typing English in TTY. I hope this keeps going and quality keeps going, too. Thank you.